1.1.1 (6) FACULTY GUIDELINES

Teaching and Learning Process:

- 1) Refer the copy of syllabus and plan number of lectures and practical as per University norms /PCL. Divide unit into number of topless and assign lecture {s}/practical(s) to the identified topics in such a way that it is possible to complete whole syllabus within decided period. Prepare teaching plan to conduct theory and/or practical sessions as per course outcomes (CO) and map with program outcomes (PO).
- 2) All the theory and practical classes must start on sharp time and should be conducted for full time as per timetable: under no circumstances shall the students be released before time. Prepare separate faulty time table. No theory or practical class shall be left unattended: the Principal must be informed about non conduct of a class, if any. With substantial reason for the non-conduct of the class, Tutorial work should report separately on attendance book. Alternative arrangement shall be made for absence or leave.
- 3) The subject teacher must remain present for full length of time during practical. Subject teacher should dictate the principle, theory & procedure of Practical. It is advised that they observe the techniques and skills of the students and correct them if required.
- 4) The attendance of the students must be taken and recorded in the attendance record during the class or practical and it should be submitted to the academic in charge whenever necessary. No, Whatsoever reason will be accepted for non-submission? Attendance record must be ready for examination at any time.
- 5) Whenever possible and require lake assignments /class tests
- 6) In case of noncompliance to the teaching plan, plan extra lecture / practical session to complete the syllabus and maintain lecture compensation report.
- 7) Minimum number of required or prescribed experiments must be taken in detail. Addition of new experiments, innovative practices is highly appreciated.
- 8) Conduct viva voce and evaluate practical record books of UG students as per assessment scheme of respective pattern. The practical records must be checked and assessed regularly.
- 9) Ensure some degree of variation /change in experiment conducted in consecutive years.
